

ANNUAL REPORT 2024-25

Introduction

Far from a mere summary, this report serves as a lighthouse, illuminating our path through significant accomplishments, unwavering determination, and pivotal moments that have defined our educational journey. Each chapter narrates a story of perseverance, innovation, and a shared commitment to fostering excellence within our dynamic school community.

Academic excellence

Academic excellence defines a great institution, and this year's Class XII board results are truly commendable. The school topper is Thara Regi, with an outstanding 97.8%. Three students-Thara Regi, Naina Finy, and Salwa Mol - achieved Full A1, making the school proud. In the Science stream, the toppers are Naina Finy and Rimisha Mariam Rony, while Thara Regi leads in Commerce, and Abienav Saiju tops Humanities.

In the SSE 2024 results, Haizel John emerged as the school topper with 96.4%. Six students - Haizel John, Ahana Anish, Tiya Regi, Firos Ajas Kallumkal, Liya Antony, and Zaina K Shahul - scored above 90%, a testament to their hard work and dedication.

Monthly Activities

JUNE

○ Reopening Day

Main School reopened on June 3rd with an inspiring theme, "Education gives our dreams wings to fly." Vibrant butterflies adorned the entrance and corridors, while each class displayed a unique theme, set by class teachers. Icebreaker games, welcome gifts, and photo booths made the day memorable, and a special assembly led by Class XII set the tone for an exciting academic year.

On Environment Day, June 5, the teachers conducted experiential learning activities in all classes.

As part of the Malayala Manorama Nallappadam activities, the principal inaugurated the Pen Boxes initiative, a forward-thinking step toward environmental sustainability. These boxes are designed to collect used plastic pens, promoting eco-friendly practices within the school community. The principal highlighted the significance of this initiative, emphasizing that small changes in daily habits, like recycling used pens, can lead to a larger positive environmental impact.

National Reading Day & Reading Week

Celebrated on June 18, these occasions saw Class VI A host an engaging assembly featuring book reviews, speeches, a literature quiz, and an impressive yoga display.

- Reading Week encouraged students to dive into literature through a plethora of activities like Reading Marathon, storytelling, speeches on importance of reading, book reviews, and poster-making; cultivating a lasting love for books.

As part of the celebrations for Reading Week, a vibrant and cozy Reading Corner was thoughtfully set up within the school premises, providing a dedicated space for students to immerse themselves in the joy of reading. The Reading Corner, adorned with colourful posters, motivational quotes, and a variety of books, became a hub of literary exploration and quiet reflection. A Book Exchange Program was also organized, where students brought books from home to exchange with their peers.

- In observance of the International Day Against Drug Abuse, students came together to take an E-pledge, reaffirming their commitment to leading a drug-free life. By participating in this digital initiative, they not only pledged to stay away from harmful substances but also vowed to spread awareness among their peers and communities about the dangers of drug abuse, reinforcing the importance of healthy choices for a brighter future.

- June 26, Yoga Day was yet another day to revive the mental, physical and spiritual wellbeing through the practice of Yoga. Our students improve their strength, balance and flexibility through yoga as it is a part of their daily activities.

July

- International Fruit Day: A Juicy Celebration!

On July 2nd, 2024, our school celebrated International Fruit Day with vibrant colours, creativity, and enthusiasm. The event began with a mesmerizing fruit-carving demonstration by Ms. Liji Shinas, who transformed ordinary fruits into stunning works of art. Kindergarteners enjoyed a hands-on fruit-identification activity and crafted a delicious fruit salad, while students from classes 1–5 showcased teamwork and innovation through a variety of fruit-based dishes and a lively fruit parade. The day was a delightful celebration of health, creativity, and the joy of fruits!
